

I have a problem of having a fax machine call my home phone at all hours of the day, even in the wee hours of the morning. I don't have a fax machine to identify the caller. I have called the phone company and they say they can't give me any information on the caller. Do you have any sugestions that may help me with my problem?

Thank You

Richard Plaskus